To Our Comrades and Friends.

Your Committee, upon whom is devolved the duty of preparing and presenting to the members of this Association a second edition of its roll of Membership, Constitution and By-Laws, will be pardoned the pride they have in the success of the organization. They feel flattered at the many kind words that have been given them, not alone by those whose sympathies were with them in darker days, but also by the loyal men and women upon the other side. Our Association has steadily grown from its birth, scarce ten months ago, until now its Veteran and Honorary membership has reached more than three hundred in number.

Vice-Presidents and branches have been appointed and established in several counties, and we think other counties will fall into line as soon as they fully understand how broad is the basis upon which our organization is rested and the advantages obtained over independent County Associations in giving aid to the needy Confederate and his family. When the good people of our land, regardless of section or political affiliation, come to know the strenuous efforts we are making, the end of which is the permanent establishment and endowment of a home for those who, "from disease, misfortune, or the infirmities of age, may become incapable of supporting themselves or families," we believe that many a noble and tender heart will hear and help us. We appeal to the faithful Confederate Soldier, his wife, son and daughter, and all others, who are eligible, under the Constitution, to become either veteran or honorary members, and aid in caring for the unfortunate among us, and in keeping green the graves of the gallant men "who are too soon forgotten when they are gone."

And while the Master has not been unmindful of His Confederate children, and has blessed them in many ways, we should not be forgetful of His bounties, but should thank Him, "as we turn our eyes Southward, that the scene is not of a people conquered and oppressed; of fields scourged by the ravages of war; of a country bearing upon its breast unsightly scars of that terrible period. But we see a land not only at peace, but abounding in prosperity, social order restored, and the reign of civil law universal." We see also "the soldiers of the North and South, who, though in variance for a long while, are now at peace, and in hearty loyalty to the United States Government, and ready if need be to march shoulder to shoulder against any foreign foe. The twenty-six winters that have passed since the war, we think, have sufficiently cooled the hatreds that once burned Northward and Southward to allow the remark that they who fought in that conflict were honest, and it is too much to ask either side to believe that those who came out from their homes, forsaking father and mother and wife and child, many of these never to return, were not in earnest when they put their lives into the awful exigency."

Committing our work to God for His blessings, and to the good people of our common country for their approval,

We are,

Faithfully,

YOUR EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

This Association shall be known as the "Confederate Veteran Association of Kentucky," with headquarters at Lexington, Kentucky.

ARTICLE II.

The object of this Association shall be the cultivation of social relations among those who were honorably engaged in the service of the Confederate States of America; to preserve the fraternal ties of comradeship; to aid and assist those of its members who, from disease, misfortune, or the infirmities of age, may become incapable of supporting themselves or families; to pay a decent respect to the remains and to the memory of those who die, and to see that no worthy Confederate shall ever become an object of public charity.

ARTICLE III.

SEC. 1. Members shall be elected by ballot by the Executive Committee, and no one shall be balloted for unless recommended by two members of the Association, who shall certify, to the best of their belief, to his honorable record in the Confederate service, and that he has brought no dishonor on the service since. Any member objecting to any person elected by the Executive Committee, shall have the right of appeal to the Association, the decision of which shall be final. But two members of said Committee voting in the negative, the applicant for membership shall be rejected.

ARTICLE IV.

SEC. 1. Each member of this Association shall pay an initiation fee of five dollars, and the further sum of four dollars a year as dues, and payable quarterly in advance on the first days of January, April, July, and October of each year.

SEC. 2. Any member failing for two consecutive meetings to pay his dues shall, after due notice from the Secretary, be reported as delinquent and stricken from the roll: Provided, That the Executive Committee shall have power to remit the dues of any applicant or member when they are satisfied that he is unable to pay them.

ARTICLE V.

Officers.

SEC. 1. The Officers of this Association shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Executive Committee, to be composed of the President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and ten members, who shall serve until their successors are elected and qualified; all of them may, after the present year, be annually elected by ballot on the first Saturday in April of each year. A majority of the members of the Executive Committee who reside in the city of Lexington, Kentucky, shall constitute a quorum. The officers shall conduct the business of the Association as provided in the by-laws.

SEC. 2. There shall be, in addition to the regular officers mentioned in Section 1 of this Article, one Vice-President from each county in the State represented by a membership in the Association, and shall be known as Second Vice-President of the county so represented, and shall be nominated by the President and confirmed by the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE VI.

Meetings.

There shall be two stated meetings of the Association annually, to-wit: On the first Saturdays in April and October; also such called meetings as may be ordered by the President or provided for in the by-laws.

ARTICLE VII.

Funds.

SEC. 1. The funds of this Association shall be deposited in bank to the credit of the Association, and shall be drawn only on the order of the President, Secretary, and Treasurer. All claims shall be approved by the Executive Committee before payment.

ARTICLE VIII.

SEC. 1. This constitution shall not be altered or amended except by motion made in writing at a regular meeting of the Association; such motion shall lie over until the next stated meeting, when every member entitled to a vote shall be notified in writing to attend; and if the proposed alteration or amendment shall receive a majority of two-thirds of those present, it shall then become a part of this Constitution, except as otherwise provided for in article XV.

SEC. 2. The Association shall adopt such by-laws for its government as may be deemed necessary, not to conflict with the provisions of this Constitution. The influence or sympathy of this Association as a body shall never be enlisted or used in favor of any political or religious organization whatever, nor shall any political or religious discussions be permitted in its meetings.

ARTICLE IX

This Association shall have power to receive and hold any property, real, personal, or mixed, that may be donated by any person for the use of the relief fund or for other purposes of the Association.

ARTICLE X.

Every member of this Association shall make the following pledge:

"I hereby solemnly promise to observe, obey, and support the Constitution and By-Laws of the Confederate Veteran Association of Kentucky so long as I remain a member thereof. I will not divert any of its funds from the legitimate purposes of the Association, nor suffer it to be done if I can prevent.

"I will be a true and faithful comrade to every member of the same.

"I will defend his honor, vindicate his good name, and assist his family according to my ability and opportunity, so long as the member deports himself as a good citizen, and does not forfeit his claim upon the Association by his own acts, and in the manner prescribed in the by-laws."

ARTICLE XI.

Any person, either male or female, whose sympathies were with the Southern arms, or the wives or sons or daughters of soldiers or sailors who were faithful to the Confederate States Government, can become honorary members of this Association.

ARTICLE XII.

Only persons of good moral character can become honorary members of this Association, and must be elected members in the manner provided in Article III of the Constitution, upon the payment of a membership fee of five dollars.

ARTICLE XIII.

No person can ever become an honorary member who was at any time an officer or soldier in either the Army or Navy of the Confederate States.

ARTICLE XIV.

The insignia of the ladies who become honorary members shall be a design in gold of a Confederate flag in enamel colors, which shall be given free, but the male members will not be furnished with any insignia, or allowed to wear any mark of membership, unless otherwise ordered by the Association or the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee have directed that a silver button of same design as provided for the ladies be furnished free to the male members.

ARTICLE XV.

No honorary member shall be allowed to vote upon any question, and no section pertaining to honorary members shall ever be altered or amended, except upon seven-eighths of the veteran members voting in the affirmative.

BY-LAWS.

I.

The Executive Committee shall be charged with the duty of investigating and reporting upon any case of distress which may come to their knowledge and which requires aid of any sort on the part of the Association. This aid shall be extended first, to the members of the Association and their families; second, to any worthy and needy Confederate soldier residing or temporarily stopping in the city of Lexington and vicinity.

II.

The Executive Committee shall meet at the Secretary's office as often as they may be called by the President or five members of said Committee. They shall keep a record of their proceedings and shall recommend to the President any person who, in their judgment, should receive aid from the Association, stating in said recommendation the amount they deem proper to be paid.

III.

The President shall draw his check, countersigned by the Secretary and Treasurer, in favor of persons recommended by the Executive Committee in any amount not exceeding that recommended.

IV.

The Executive Committee may fill all vacancies which may occur in their own body by death or resignation.

V.

The Secretary shall be charged with the duty of collecting the moneys due the Association by members, and may employ and pay a collector for that purpose.

VI.

The Secretary shall report to each stated meeting all members in arrears, and members so reported shall be dealt with as provided in Section 2, Article 4, of the Constitution.

VII.

Upon the death of any member of the Association, the President shall notify all surviving comrades to meet and attend the funeral in such a manner as, after consultation with the family and friends, he may deem best.

VIII.

The insignia of this Association shall be worn at all times, and must be "A circular design five-eighths of an inch in diameter, with the medallion head of R. E. Lee thereon, surrounded by an enamel belt, on which are oxidized stars; on the reverse, across the center, the owner's name, and around the circumference the name of the Association." The badge of the Association shall be furnished free to each member, to be held by him as long as he is in good standing in the Association, subject to recall for cause. At a member's death, the badge goes as an heirloom to his family.

Her life was embittered by many sorrows, but rewarded by the blessings which are given those who find happiness in good done to others. Unselfish, charitable, self-sacrificing, heroic in devotion to duty, untiring in the offices of affection, her name and memory are sanctified. She gave all her life to her family and her friends. She gave her children to her country. She ministered unceasingly to the poor and helpless, and she loved the Lord her God with all her heart, and all her soul, and all her mind, and has "crossed over the river to rest under the shade of the trees."
